About

- I am a native Oregonian. At seven years old, I won a contest and the prize was a paint-by-number artist box. I enjoyed it less than I did using a coloring book because it was so limiting. I wanted to do my own art.

As a child, I won a local newspaper art contest and moved to doing oil paintings. I won a blue ribbon in a contest at my dad's Elks lodge.

You would think that I would be encouraged to keep making art in that way, but I changed over to the dramatic arts. I was a drama major while at the same time doing stand-up comedy and folk singing.

Artist Statement

I originally was more of a music writer for many years. I then discovered my visual art skills that been dormant which lead to the discovery of Mosaics.

My guitar is in the corner. My keyboards have been given away.

I now have a wonderful mosaic shop of stained glass, mirror, jewelry, tiles, slate etc. I have finally found my art form.
