About

- An art mentor of mine used to tell me when you're stuck, go back to your roots or close to something like that.

My roots will always seed themselves in the ocean. I was born on the coast and raised on another. It's a part of me just as much as my creativity.

Artist Statement

The work I produce is filled with patience, love, and resembles those who have been there for me.

I can paint a "perfect" image because I have let go of those who held onto me for their own benefit. I can allow love and imperfections to be in my life. I wouldn't have it any other way.
