About

- The work of Greta Olivas is full of color, which is usually the first thing people are drawn to. As the paintings are examined more closely their energy draws the viewer in.

She describes her work as energy, or emotions that come through and end up on the canvas. Some may seem like celestial bodies, but to her, they are a bigger understanding of the universe and our place within it.

She was born in New York City, grew up in Argentina, has resided the majority of her life in Austin Texas and recently moved to Florence Oregon.

Artist Statement

I believe that creativity is our soul speaking through us. I tell people that I wonder if my personal growth helps me create my art, or if my art helps me with my personal growth. I believe it's both.
